Message from the Principal: Ms. Geiser

What does it mean to honor God? Why would someone choose to do so with their lives? This is the theme that we are focusing on this year at GMS. In our chapel talks, in our morning devotions, and in our conduct we want to encourage students to honor the Lord with their lives.

God is worthy of all of our praise and honor. If this is at the top of our priority list as a believer, then the way we live our lives should be an overflow of that:

- We honor Scripture.
- We honor our time.
- We honor those in authority.
- We honor our bodies.
- We honor God with our finances.
- We honor God in our speech.
- We honor others.
- We honor our learning.
- We honor our commitments.

Each of these topics will be addressed in our Pre-K-12th grade chapels throughout the school year. Please pray for our speakers and students on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings as we meet together collectively to honor the Lord by worshiping Him in song and in receiving encouragement from the chapel speaker.

Parents, partner with us by talking about what it means to honor God in your homes. Grandparents, ask your grandkids what they are learning about honoring God at school. This year, as you train, teach, and discipline your children, consider doing it in light of what it means to honor God with our lives.
